

Equine veterinarians wanted in the Horse Capital of the World!

Wanted: Qualified, licensed veterinarians for the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority.

The Kentucky Horse Racing Authority (KHRA) is assembling a team of qualified veterinarians to oversee Kentucky's signature industry. Applicants should have integrity, a passion for horses, and great organizational and people skills. Veterinarians must be licensed by the Kentucky Board of Veterinary Examiners. Applicants and employees in this classification may be required to submit to a drug screening test and background check. Work will be performed in an office setting, outdoors in horse barns and at racetracks in Kentucky.

Competitive benefits package includes:

- Health and life insurance
- Deferred compensation package
- Annual, sick and compensatory leave
- Notoriety of working the KY Derby and Keeneland

The KHRA is an independent agency of Kentucky state government, charged with the responsibility of regulating the conduct of horse racing and pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing and related activities within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

KHRA veterinarians ensure the integrity of Kentucky's signature industry by enforcing the rules and regulations in all veterinary matters related to horse racing in the state. There is an immediate need for veterinarians and KHRA will be reviewing all applicants until positions are filled. Call the KHRA today at (859) 246-2040 to become a part of the rich tradition of Kentucky horse racing.
